Held in honor of Global Intergenerational Week, we are excited to evolve our annual spring convening into a summit—creating even greater space to spark bold ideas and elevate the power of human connection across generations. The program features a cross-sector, moderated panel with leaders in the HR/workforce, public health, education, and community-building sectors—drawing out practical, forward-looking solutions grounded in intergenerational approaches.

The Bridge Builder Summit is more than an event—it's a catalyst.

In-person & livestream tickets available.
